Translator's Note

Bismillah Hir Rahman Nir Rahim.

In the name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

The English translation of Afzal Mu'jizat-ul-Mahdi was my first translation which was published in 2005.

My brother-in-law Janab Sha Mohammed Salim expressed his intention to reprint this book. I used this opportunity to make minor corrections to mistakes had I made in translation due to my inexperience.

I also came across the second reprint of the Urdu edition which had a note from Hazrat Moulana Syed Khuda Bakhsh Rushdi Saheb<sup>RH</sup>. This note mentions that the author of this book is Hazrat Bandagi Miyan Shah Burhanuddin<sup>RH</sup> and not Hazrat Bandagi Miyan Shah Qasim Mujtahid-e-Giroh<sup>RH</sup>. I have included the note in this book. You can find it at the end of the book.

We are passing through an era of turmoil and many sections of our community appear to be embroiled in discussions of faith and the veracity of our practices. Outsiders have been largely successful in sowing the seeds of doubt in the minds of many youngsters. One of the reasons why our youth fall prey to such doubts is lack of knowledge about the personality of Hazrat Syed Muhammad Jaunpuri Mahdi Mau'ood Alaihis Salam. When people spend time to study and learn about his life they are overwhelmed by the magnetism of his personality and they develop an unshakeable faith in him and his message.

Keeping this in mind, its important that we disseminate details of the life of our Imam<sup>AS</sup> amongst our youngsters through print and electronic media. It is for this reason that I pushed for the reprint of this book rather than printing one of my other translations which have not been printed yet.

May Allah bless Janab Sha Mohammed Salim for sponsoring the printing of this book and reward him for this noble deed. Aameen.

I hope and pray that this book becomes a source of salvation for this Faqir.

Translator's Note

(From the 2005 Edition)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

Most of the Mahdavia literature is available in Urdu and Farsi. It is only in the past decade and a half that our books have been translated into English. While many important books have been translated into English by venerated people of the community, the list of English books is still small compared to the literature available in Urdu. This translation is a meagre effort from a menial to add one more book to that list.

Afzal Mu'jizat al-Mahdi by Hazrat Syed Qasim Mujtahid Giroh<sup>RH</sup> lists one hundred miracles of the Imamana Syed Muhammad Jaunpuri Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>. This book is written in Persian. It was translated into Urdu by Hazrat Syed Dilawar Gorey Miyan<sup>RH</sup>. I have used the Urdu translation published in 1370 Hijri as the basis for my English translation.

I have been fortunate in having the guidance of my father, Hazrat Syed Khalilullah Saheb, during the translation of the book. During the translation I have consulted him whenever I faced any difficulty. His command over Urdu and English languages was very beneficial to me.

I am indebted to Hazrat Syed Ziaullah Saheb Yadullahi, who has translated many of our books into English over the past decade. Despite his busy schedule and advancing age, he graciously consented to review this book. His review and resulting comments have been invaluable and have shaped this book for the better.

I had requested Hazrat Syed Ziaullah Saheb to write an article on miracles (mu'jizat) which would serve as a general introduction to the topic. Within a few days, he couriered the article to me. The article titled 'Miracles' is published as part of this book.

This is my first attempt at translation and I have much to learn. I request readers to treat any errors with kindness and send their comments so that necessary corrections can be done in the future editions.

MIRACLES

Hazrat Syed Ziaullah Saheb Yadullahi<sup>RH</sup>

Arabi-English Dictionary gives the meaning of the Arabic word Mu'jiza as a miracle (especially one performed by a prophet). Its plural is Mu'jizat.

The Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary defines 'miracle' as "an act or event that does not follow the laws of nature and is believed to be caused by God."

The Cambridge International Dictionary defines 'miracle' as "an unusual and mysterious event that is thought to have been caused by a god or any very surprising and unexpected event."

About the people who demanded 'miracles', the Quran says: "(the same are) Those who say: 'Lo! Allah hath charged us that we believe not in any messenger (Rasul) until he brings us an offering which fire (from heaven) shall devour.' Say (unto them, O Muhammad): 'Messengers came unto you before me with miracles, and with that (very miracle) which ye describe. Why then did ye slay them? (Answer that) if ye are truthful!" (3:183)

In his tafsir of Quran, Hazrat Syed Miranji Abid Khundmiri elaborates under this Quranic Verse thus: "The truth is that the forefathers (of those that demanded the miracles) were adamant and obstinate by their very nature. Their demands are mere excuses. They are disavowing you (the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>) with various excuses. They have disavowed all the apostles who came before you (Prophet Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup>), even though the apostles had come with clear signs and scriptures.”

It is obvious from this that the people who demand miracles from apostles are dishonest and make false pretexts to disavow the apostles of Allah.

“On one occasion, a night of full moon, not long after it had risen, when it was to be seen hanging in the sky above Mount Hira, a body of disbelievers approached the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> and asked him to split the moon in two as a sign that he was indeed the Messenger of God. Many others were also present, including believers and hesitants, and when the demand was made all eyes were turned towards the luminary. Great was their amazement to see it divide into two halves which drew away from each other until there was a half moon shining brightly on either side of the mountain. ‘Bear ye witness,’ the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> said. But those who had demanded the miracle rejected this optical event as mere magic, saying that he had cast a spell over them. The believers, on the other hand, rejoiced, and some of the hesitants entered Islam, while others came nearer to doing so.”<sup>1</sup>

The morning after Mei'raj, the midnight journey of Prophet Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup> to the seven heavens, "a group of men went to (Hazrat) Abu Bakr<sup>RZ</sup> and said : 'What thinkest thou now of thy friend (Prophet Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup>)? He telleth us he went last night to Jerusalem and prayed there and then he returned to Mecca.' (Hazrat) Abu Bakr<sup>RZ</sup> accused them of lying, but they assured him that (Hazrat) Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup> was in the mosque (kaaba) at the moment, speaking about this journey. 'If so he saith.' said Abu Bakr<sup>RZ</sup>, 'then it is true. And where is the wonder of it? He telleth me that tidings came to him from Heaven to earth in one hour of the day or night, and I know him to be speaking the truth. And that is beyond what ye cavil at.'"<sup>2</sup>

The above two quotations speak volumes about those infidels who demand miracles and then reject the performed miracle after seeing it, and those men of faith (iman) who accepted the truth, Allah had sent to them through the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>. It was for this reason that the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> called Hazrat Abu Bakr<sup>RZ</sup> the name as-siddiq, which means "the great witness of truth" or "the great confirmer of truth."

A miracle is the work (fel) of Allah, which He performs at the demand of a nabi (prophet) and Allah performs it through the nabi. This work is against the usual habit (aadat)

and the Ummah cannot replicate the precedent (of the work through the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>).<sup>3</sup>

“There is no doubt that every event, contrary to nature or unusual, is named in relation to the eminent person who manifests it. For instance, if the event occurs through a nabi (prophet), it is a mu’jiza; if it occurs through a wali (saint), it is a karamat (supernatural event); and, if it occurs through a non-Muslim, it is istidraj (an abnormal or unusual even performed by a non-Muslim).”<sup>4</sup>

There is a difference of opinion whether an unusual event, which a prophet performs like creating a passage through a body of water like a river or a sea or bringing into life a dead person, can also be performed by a wali (saint). Some say a saint can perform it while others say that he cannot. Under these circumstances, the difference between a mu’jiza and karamat is whether the performance follows a challenge or not.<sup>5</sup>

Hazrat Imam Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> has at no time claimed that he is a prophet and the Mahdavis do not believe him to be a prophet. Prophet Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup> has tendered the evidence that the Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> would follow in his footsteps and would not err. On another occasion, he has ordered his followers to go crawling on ice and swear fealty to Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> when they hear that he has appeared because he is the vice-regent of Allah. The Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> also calls or invites (da'wa) the people to come towards Allah. Since, the Imam Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> is khalifatullah (vice-regent of Allah), Da'yi il-Allah (invites people towards Allah) and Masoom an-il-khata (free from erring), the unnatural and unusual events he performs are called mu'jizat.<sup>6</sup>

The karamat is the right of the aulia (saints). The Quran bears witness that the aulia have performed karamat. Hazrat Zachariah<sup>AS</sup> entered Bait-ul-Muqaddas and enquired of Mariam<sup>AS</sup> as to where the food (that was there) came from and Hazrat Mariam<sup>AS</sup> said it had come from Allah. (3:37)

Further, by the supplications of Hazrat Aasif Siddiq, the throne of Bilqis reached the presence of Sulaiman<sup>AS</sup> (Solomon) in a split second. (27:40)

These two verses of Quran prove that karamat can be performed by the virtuous (salihin).

Secondly, it is proved by khobar e mutawatir (successively repeated reports) that the companions of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>, their successors and other saints have performed karamat. For instance, Hazrat Umar<sup>RZ</sup> (second Caliph of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>) was delivering his sermon (khutba) at the Prophet's<sup>SLM</sup> mosque in Madina, when he saw the (Muslim) army fighting war at Nahawant, far far away, on the verge of defeat. He shouted, "O small army! Take the help of the mountain!" The army contingent heard his voice and followed the instructions. This resulted in the victory of the Muslim army. The innumerable karamat of Hazrat Ali<sup>RZ</sup> (fourth Caliph of Islam) are well known. Hence the belief that aulia perform karamat is true and correct. Mu'tazela deny this.<sup>7</sup>

However, Hazrat Imam Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> was not in favour of his followers performing karamat. The following incident explains the point.

Hazrat Imam Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> continued his life-long migration from Danapur (now in Bihar, India) towards Kalpi. On the way he camped in a forest. Hazrat Shaikh Bhik<sup>RZ</sup>, a companion of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, went on an errand to a nearby town, probably, Kalpi itself with Miyan Bhil Muhajir<sup>RZ</sup>. There he saw a big crowd lamenting. He enquired what was amiss. People told him that the ruler of the town and their leader had died. Hazrat Shaikh Bhik<sup>RZ</sup> asked if he could see the dead body. When Shaikh Bhik<sup>RZ</sup> and Shaikh Bhil<sup>RZ</sup> came near the dead body, Shaik Bhik<sup>RZ</sup> said, "He is alive." He got hold of the hand of the dead body and said, "Get up." The body became alive and stood up. The multitude present said in one voice, "This is not a human being! He is Prabhu, Parmeshwar, Autar.” They surrounded Miyan Bhik<sup>RZ</sup> and started prostrating before him. Somehow the two companions of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> got rid of the crowd and started to run. But the people followed the companions who came into the presence of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. When the crowd was dispersed with great difficulty, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> asked the details and Miyan Bhik<sup>RZ</sup> told him all that had happened. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> told Miyan Bhik<sup>RZ</sup>, “There is no panacea for your own fault. You have invited this evil yourself. This is the special position of Hazrat Esa<sup>AS</sup> (Jesus Christ). Do not meddle in it.”

After this the Imam<sup>AS</sup> embarked on a three day fast (Saum-e-Visal). After the fasting was over, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> supplicated Allah, “O Lord, Do not allow my followers to indulge in the evil of karamat.” Allah replied, “For your sake, We have protected your group (Jamaat) of followers from the evil of karamat.”

This is the reason, why the leaders of the Mahdavia group do not perform karamat through their will and authority (ikhtiar). It is a different matter if any karamat manifests itself without their will and authority.<sup>8</sup>

Why did the Imam<sup>AS</sup> oppose karamat by his followers? It is obvious that the person who performs a karamat, practices black magic, a necromancer, or sorcerer or conjurer or such others create an aura of potentiality around themselves and distract the attention of the people from God. Thus the importance and the high position of omnipotence that God occupies in the minds of the people is diminished and the person who plays the tricks with his jugglery assumes the eminent position suitable only to God. Hence, it is discouraged.

There are two kinds of Mu'jizat: one, belonging to the Heavenly World (Mu'jizat Alam-e-Alawi) and two, belonging to the Earthly World (Mu'jizat Alam-e-Sifli)

The miracles pertaining to the heavenly world include those like the unknown voice reciting the Quranic Verse : "wa qul Jaaa al-Haqqu wa Zahaqal-Baatil: innal – Baatila kaana zahuuqaa."<sup>9</sup> "And Say: Truth hath come and falsehood vanished away. Lo! Falsehood is ever bound to vanish." (17:81)

This recitation came in a loud voice on the night of the birth of Hazrat Imam Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>. Hazrat Shaikh Daniyal<sup>RZ</sup> and others heard it.<sup>10</sup>

A companion of Imam Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> died. But the Imam<sup>AS</sup> did not say anything about him. This was not the habit of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The other companions asked him about his silence. He directed his attention towards Allah. Allah's command came, "O Syed Muhammad! He (the deceased companion) had been called to account so far. Today he has been granted salvation (nijat) in view of your concern."

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> asked, "What was his sin?"

Allah said, "In times of distress for want of food, he used to recall his rich relatives back home and felt that they did not help him (in cash and kind), although he never went to them nor did they send him anything. But he did not repent for his thoughts. He died in similar thoughts."

A word of explanation here. Tawakkal or Trust in God entails, among other things, the conviction that Allah is the provider of sustenance to the people. But a thought that one's rich relatives can or shall provide food is tantamount to equating Allah with rich relatives, and this is Shirk-e-Khafi (hidden polytheism), a sin which Allah is never expected to forgive.

The miracles pertaining to earthly world, concern animals, plants and minerals and fossils.

It is narrated that when the ruler of Farah, Mir Zunoon, raised his hand with a sword to assassinate Hazrat Imam Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>, his hand became crippled.

This is because the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was a khalifatullah (Vice-Regent of Allah) and nobody could over-power him.<sup>11</sup>

While black magic, sorcery and jugglery divert a person's attention away from Allah and weaken one's faith in Allah, mu'jiza and karamat increase one's faith (iman) in Allah.

A case in point is the following incident:

A jogi (a Hindu ascetic) who lived in the neighbourhood of Hazrat Bandagi Miyan Syed Qasim<sup>RA</sup> in Musheerabad was a kimiahgar (an alchemist). He took pity on the starving inmates of the daira of Hazrat Syed Qasim<sup>RA</sup> and offered a specific formulation which, he said, would convert any metal into gold. Hazrat Syed Qasim<sup>RA</sup> threw the formulation in a well. At that time he (Hazrat Syed Qasim<sup>RA</sup>) was standing on a stone slab. He spat on it and, Lo, the slab became a slab of gold. Seeing this karamat (mu'jiza) the jogi converted to Islam, rejected the world and joined the group of the fuqara of Hazrat Syed Qasim<sup>RA</sup>. The jogi, named Jogi Muhammad<sup>RA</sup>, died in the daira. He is buried near the grave of Hazrat Syed Qasim<sup>RA</sup> at Musheerabad Hazira.

This shows how the iman of Jogi Muhammad<sup>RA</sup> had intensified and he became a Mahdavi faqir. May Allah bless him.

Afzal Mu'jizat-ul-Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>

(Supreme Miracles of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>)

In the name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

All praise is to Allah, who sent prophets and messengers with clear signs, high character, chosen circumstances and evident miracles. Salutations on the two Mohammads<sup>SLM</sup> who were possessors of supreme miracles (Afzal Mu'jizat) and on their companions who were possessors of supernatural events (karamat). Allah the most high says “Say: Then Allah’s is the conclusive argument.” (6:149 – MHS)

After praise to Allah and the two Muhammads<sup>SLM</sup>, know that these sentences are about miracles of Hazrat Imam Muhammad Mahdi Mau’ood Alaihi Salwat wo Salaam. These are selections from the miracles of the high personality, the equal of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>, so that just-minded people do justice in this matter. And people who are prejudiced against the Imam of Wise People (Imam Oolul Albab) should abstain from their oppression for their own good. The Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> has said that religion (Deen) is justice from head to toe. May Allah have mercy on one who does justice. Know that the foundation of this book is laid on the glorious and supreme miracles of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>. Guidance is from Allah and we repose trust only in Him. The attempt is mine, to complete it is upon Allah.

The virtuous, noble and devout mother of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> would spend her nights in prayers and worship. One night, in the wee hours, she had a vision (mu'amla) that the sun had descended from the sky and had entered her garment. She went into a divine ecstasy and lost her consciousness. News of her condition reached her brother, Malik Qayyamuiddin<sup>RH</sup>. He was a man of tariqat – having the knowledge of the divine inner realities. He came and after seeing his sister's condition he said that she was not afflicted with any disease, but was experiencing divine ecstasy. When she regained consciousness, the Malik asked her how she was lost from this world. The Bibi<sup>RZ</sup> described what had happened. The Malik said that the vision indicated that the Khatim-e-Vilayet-e-Muhammadi (The Seal of the Sainthood of Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup>) would be born from her womb. The Malik then kissed the feet (qadambosi) of his sister and said, "You have honoured us and our seven generations. But this should not be revealed to anyone as people, be they our own or others, may become envious."

Know O Judge<sup>12</sup>, whatever the Bibi<sup>RZ</sup> saw in her vision, did come to happen. Thus this miracle became a clear proof "for everyone whose heart is wide-awake – that is (everyone who) lends ear with a conscious mind." (Surah Qaf, 50:37) because the mother of Rasoolullah<sup>SLM</sup> had the same vision during her pregnancy and later it did come to happen.

<sup>12</sup> The reader of this book is being addressed as O Judge, O Just Man, O Fair Minded Person

Miracle 2

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was in the womb for four months, the Bibi<sup>RZ</sup> (the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> mother) would hear a hidden voice saying, "Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> has come."

Miracle 3

---

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> conversed when he was still in his mother's womb.

Miracle 4

---

Esa Roohullah<sup>AS</sup> (Jesus) had the attribute of conversing in his mother's womb. As Allah says in the Quran about the words spoken by Esa Roohullah<sup>AS</sup>, "Do not grieve! Your Lord has provided a stream at your feet." (Surah Maryam, 19:24)

The Lamp of Hearts (Siraj-al-Quloob) Imam<sup>AS</sup>, had the same attribute.

Miracle 5

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> came out of his mother's womb, he was clean and free of pollutants of blood and other impurities.

Miracle 6

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was born, he covered his private parts with his hands. Only after a dress was put on him, did he take off his hands. Whenever his clothes were removed, he would cover his private parts with both his hands.

Miracle 7

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was an infant, the sound of his crying was such, that the people who heard it would be captivated by it to such an extent, that they would not have the strength to lift a leg.

Miracle 8

---

After the birth of Imam<sup>AS</sup>, Allah gave him the power of invitation just like He had given it to Esa<sup>AS</sup>. But on the command of Allah, he assimilated it (did not show it).

Miracle 9

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was born, an unseen voice proclaimed, “Say: The truth has arrived and falsehood has perished. Indeed, falsehood is bound to perish.” (Surah al-Isra, 17:81)

Miracle 10

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was born, all the idols in the city of Jaunpur fell down on their faces, just like the idols of Makkah had fallen down on their faces at the birth of Rasoolullah<sup>SLM</sup>.

Miracle 11

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> reached the age of speaking, the first words upon his holy tongue were, “Mahdi Mau’ood has come.”

Miracle 12

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was admitted to the school of Sheikh Daniyal<sup>RZ</sup>, he memorized the whole of the Quran at the age of seven. Sheikh Daniyal<sup>RZ</sup> then focused on his Arabic education. It is well known that when the Sheikh<sup>RZ</sup> taught one part of the book, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> explained the essence and purport of the entire book along with questions and answers to the extent that the Sheikh's unresolved problems were also answered. Thus some treatises of knowledge were accepted. When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> reached the age of twelve years, the scholars in and around Danapur unanimously bestowed upon him the title of Asad-ul-Ulema (Lion amongst scholars).

---

Whenever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> went to the school of Sheikh Daniyal<sup>RZ</sup>, Khaja Khizr<sup>AS</sup>, on the command of Allah, would also come to meet the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and would pose a few questions to Sheikh Daniyal<sup>RZ</sup>. When Sheikh Daniyal<sup>RZ</sup> could not answer and gave up, he would request the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, who would resolve all the questions of Khizr<sup>AS</sup> in a single answer.

Miracle 14

visible and conclusive testimony for the Oolul-Albab (those who are endowed with insight).

Thus, know O Judge, from the time the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was an infant till the time Khizr<sup>AS</sup> handed over the entrustment, a number of miracles were revealed by him. Many scholars were amazed and asked, “Where did this come from?” (Surah Aale-Imran, 3:37). They conceded that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> held many mysteries within him. Many people were waiting for his advent, knowing that he will undoubtedly distribute hidden treasures. Ultimately this happened in accordance with the adage that the supposition of believers will not go wrong.

Miracle 15

---

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> had learnt of his imminent victory over Gaur from the soul of Hazrat Rasoolullah<sup>SLM</sup> and that is exactly what happened. This is an evident miracle and a clear sign. This is so because the army of Sultan Husain Sharqi<sup>RZ</sup> had fifteen hundred soldiers (along with the Imam<sup>AS</sup>). And the army of Raja Dalpat had seventy thousand cavalry. They had started the hostilities after advancing about three miles from their fort. But ultimately the infidels were defeated and the believers won the battle. This is no secret.

Miracle 16

---

After Dalpat Rai was killed, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> experienced divine ecstasy for seven years. The divine ecstasy was such that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> used to say that from the waves of manifestations of divinity, if one drop were to be given to a Wali-e-Kamil (a perfect saint) or a Prophet or Messenger of Allah, he will lose all his consciousness and will not regain it for his entire life. In spite of this, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> performed his Farz and Sunnat and said that Allah says 'O Syed Muhammad, since we have made you the Khatim-e Vilayet-e Muhammadia<sup>SLM</sup> (Seal of the Sainthood of Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup>), We get the Faraiz and Sunnats performed by you. This is Our mercy and favour on you.' A Muhaqqiq (one who sees the reality of things) has so beautifully described this in this couplet:

One said Anal Haq (I am the truth), another said
Subhani (Glory to me)
Who else can bear the burden of the manifestations of Allah except the Khatim e Vilayet e Muhammadi Imam
Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>

Miracle 17

---

Of the twelve years during which the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was in divine ecstasy, he was not at all conscious of this world for seven years, but he performed the five daily prayers. During these seven years he did not eat anything and did not drink even a drop of water. For the remaining five years, Bibi Ilahdati<sup>RZ</sup> (the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> wife) calculated the quantity of food consumed. Water, food grains, oil and meat altogether amounting to 17 Ser<sup>13</sup> was consumed by him. In spite of this he had the strength to perform the obligatory prayers.

Miracle 18

---

In the city of Chanderi, on the command of Allah, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said about the sons of the Sheikhs, “See on whose scarf a hand will fall (whose reputation will be tarnished)” and proceeded from that place. The night was spent about a mile away. Later burning fires were seen in the city and loud voices of rioting people were heard. The next day, two companions who had stayed back brought the news that people there were saying that this misfortune had befallen due to the curse of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said that no torment comes to people from the servants of Allah, but it comes from their own deeds. Allah says, “And whatever misfortune befalls you, it is on account of what your hands have done.” (Surah Ash-Shura, 42:30) This is an open miracle because whatever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> says, happens without delay.

Miracle 19

In the city of Mandu, Sultan Ghayasuddin<sup>RZ</sup> sent the following entreaties to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>

1. My faith persists (Iman ho).
2. I die as an oppressed person.

<sup>13</sup> A Ser is a measure which is a little over one kilogram in weight - Translator.

3. I get the status of a martyr.

The Ameer-e-Ameeran, Peer-e-Peeran (Leader of Leaders, the Preceptor of Preceptors) Hazrat Meeran<sup>AS</sup>, after hearing the Sultan's request said, "All three requests are accepted, all three requests are accepted, all three requests are accepted."

Ultimately whatever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, happened.

---

When the Ameer-e-Ameeran Mehtar-e-Sarvaran (Leader of Leaders, the Prince of Sovereigns) Hazrat Meeran<sup>AS</sup> came to the city of Ahmednagar, the king of that place was Shah Nizam-ul-Mulk. He came to know about the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> arrival and about the effect of the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> paskhurda.<sup>14</sup> Desiring a son, he came to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, hoping that his desire would be fulfilled at the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> door. Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup>, after counseling him, gave him paskhurda of the betel leaves which he was chewing. The king and his wife consumed the paskhurda. By the blessings of Imam<sup>AS</sup>, Allah bestowed him a son, who he named Burhan Nizam-ul-Mulk.

<sup>14</sup> This is water or betel leaves or other food items which the Imam<sup>AS</sup> consumed in part and gave the remaining to be consumed by people. This leftover had miraculous and curative effects on the people who consumed it. The practice of giving paskhurda is followed by Mahdavi Murshids even to this day - Translator.

Miracle 21

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> went to Daulatabad, he visited the tombs of Auliya Allah (Saints). He went to the tomb of Syed Muhammad Arif<sup>RH</sup>, sat at the grave for some time, performed two rak'ats of namaz and then came to a well which contained bitter water. He gargled the water and spat it back into the well. The effect of the paskhurda was such that the water became sweet. This is a miracle of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> and this is not hidden even from a person having little knowledge of the Prophet's<sup>SLM</sup> miracles.

Similarly, in Solah Santej, the bitter water of a well turned sweet by the paskhurda of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 22

---

At the tomb of Syed Muhammad Arif<sup>RH</sup>, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> brushed his teeth with a pomegranate stick and then stuck it into the ground. The stick sprouted into a tree.

This is the speciality of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> which has been reported in the hadith.

It is reported that one day Bandagi Miyan Shah Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> asked the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, "Meeranji, the Ulema say that one of the signs of the Mahdi is that dry trees will become fresh and green." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> had a miswak<sup>15</sup> in his hand. He pushed the miswak stick into the ground. The miswak sprouted leaves, flowers and fruits. Then the Hamsar (equal) of the

Miracle 23

The bodily excrements of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> were not visible.

Some people went looking for proof, since this was an attribute of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> and if the Imam<sup>AS</sup> had the attributes of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>, then he would have this attribute too. Ultimately, nothing was seen except water.

Miracle 24

---

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> did not have a shadow, just as Rasoolullah<sup>SLM</sup> did not have a shadow. After seeing this miracle of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, many people accepted him and became believers.

Miracle 25

---

Flies did not sit on the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 26

---

Bad odour did not spread around the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam's<sup>AS</sup> fragrance would prevail over the odour and the bad smell would vanish. In the same way that at the time of his birth an unseen voice had proclaimed that truth had arrived and falsehood had perished. (17:81)

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> took a path, his fragrance lingered on it, indicating that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> had passed that way. Like it is reported by Bandagi Miyan Shah Dilawar<sup>RZ</sup> that after he became a disciple of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> he was in divine ecstasy for seven years. When he regained consciousness, he enquired about the whereabouts of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Servants informed him that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> had gone to Makkah. He immediately got up and with a desire to meet the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, he departed from the place. Later, he used to say that the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> fragrance was his guide and brought him back in the service of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Glory be to Allah, Glory be to Allah, this was one of the miracles of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>.

Miracle 27

---

Wherever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> went, a large crowd gathered to hear his call. After receiving spiritual bounty (faiz) or sanctified left over (paskhurda) from the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, most of the people became unconscious or experienced divine ecstasy. When he shook off tears accumulated in his beard, the person on whom the drops fell would experience divine ecstasy and would be in an unconscious state for three to four days.

Miracle 28

In cities like Peeranpatan, Ahmedabad and Chapaneer, masses gathered around the Imam<sup>AS</sup> to hear the Bayan-e-Quran. The place would become jam-packed and no space would be left vacant. Some people sat on walls, rooftops and trees to hear him. The Imam's<sup>AS</sup> miracle was that all people, those who were near him as well as those who were far away from him, would hear his voice at the same volume.

Miracle 29

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> went to a city or a Sultanate, he would know the language of that place and would deliver the Bayan-e-Quran in that language. This is the miracle of all the prophets, as Allah has said, "And We did not send any messenger but with the language of his people." (Surah Ibrahim, 14:4) Hazrat Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup> and Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>, as per the verse, "We have sent you as a deliverer of good news and a warner to all of humanity," (Surah Saba, 34:28) have been sent for the entire world. Therefore Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup> and Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> know all the languages.

Miracle 30

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> used to say, "If anyone has any doubt about this servant's Mahdiat, let him bring the Taurait, Injeel, Zaboor and the Quran (Old Testament, The Bible, The Psalms of David and The Quran). This servant will recite the books from memory and you can verify if this servant recites correctly. If there is a mistake of even one letter, then this servant is not the Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>."

This miracle is manifest for a person with vision and decisive proof of the Mahdiat of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Thus Imam<sup>AS</sup> has spoken the truth.

---

Miracle 32

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> walked on a path, if a wall or a tree or a deep well were to come in front of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, then by the power of Allah, these would get leveled to make way for the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Rain fell on the path through which the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was passing through. This fact is not hidden from the believers.

Miracle 33

---

The trees and rocks along the path of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> would announce, "This is Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> and he is the Khalifatullah (Viceregent of Allah)." Whoever had the ears of the heart (inner hearing) heard this. A Muhaqqiq (one who sees the reality of things) has written this couplet so beautifully:

The caller (Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>) proclaims, 'become a lover of Allah'

But how would the deaf and blind hear the Mahdi's<sup>AS</sup> call?

Miracle 34

---

Qazi Sheikh Sadruddin<sup>RZ</sup>, one of the high ranking scholars of Sindh, came to meet the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. He saw that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was wearing a soldier's combat-uniform. He thought that Allah could not manifest in this place and started to go back. A hidden voice said, "Sadruddin! Where do you go. This is the Mahdi of the Last Era whose advent was promised by Allah. Go and pledge allegiance to him." Sheikh Sadruddin did not trust the voice, so he moved ahead.

He had walked a few steps when a voice from a tree said, "O Sadruddin, where are you going? Without doubt, Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> is this very personality about whom Allah had promised to Mustafa<sup>SLM</sup> to bring into this world."

The third time, Sheikh Sadruddin<sup>RH</sup> heard a voice from a black stone saying, "Go and meet him. Then see how Allah has manifested."

Ultimately, Sheikh Sadruddin<sup>RH</sup> came to the presence of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and met him. Then he reposed faith in the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

In a similar way, before the claim of Mahdiat, many companions of Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup>, who had been well known scholars and mystics before joining his company, heard an unseen voice saying, "We have made your Murshid (spiritual guide) the Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>, so profess belief in him." They learnt of this through their kashf (divine inspirations) and mu'amala (reveries). The companions suppressed this within themselves. Then when there was anger in the unknown voice saying, "Do you deny the truth?", they would present themselves before the Imam<sup>AS</sup> (to reveal the information they got). The Imam<sup>AS</sup> would say, "What do you have to do with this, go and be busy with your work (in the remembrance of Allah). When Allah wills, the claim will be revealed."

Miracle 35

---

Hazrat Shams-e-Muneer (the Bright Sun) like the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>, Basheer-o-Nazeer (Bearer of Good News and a Warner) Mukhbir-uz-Zameer (Informer of the secrets of people's hearts), the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, addressed every person he met by their names and lineage without enquiring about it from them. Like the case of Malik Barkhan. The Imam<sup>AS</sup>, upon meeting him for the first time, addressed him by his original name and said, "Come, Malik Barkhurdar!" People thought that Malik Barkhan was his original name, but it was only an alias. After the Imam<sup>AS</sup> addressed him, people learnt his original name.

Miracle 36

---

It is narrated by Bandagi Miyan Syed Khundmir<sup>RZ</sup> that Malik Barkhurdar informed him about the arrival of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and also narrated the incident of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> calling Malik Barkhurdar by his original name without asking and also informed him about the companions of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. As soon as Bandagi Miyan Syed Khundmir<sup>RZ</sup> heard this this he got up and started walking to go and meet the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Bandagi Miyan<sup>RZ</sup> told the people accompanying him, “Do not call my name in the presence of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. As we have heard that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> addresses every person he meets by his name and lineage without enquiring about it, let us see what he says about our lineage.”

Eventually, as soon as he saw Bandagi Miyan<sup>RZ</sup>, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, “Come Brother Syed Khundmir!” A person with the intention of testing the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, “Meeranjeo, his name is Miyan Khundmir.” (Not Miyan Syed Khundmir). The Imam<sup>AS</sup> replied, “No, brother Syed Khundmir is Siddiq (truthful). He and we (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) are descendants of the same forefather and are Hussaini Syed.” And it was like that.

By the command of Allah, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> would reveal thoughts hidden in people’s hearts. Thus a questioner was not required to ask his question. This was apparent not only with the musaddiqan (acceptors of Mahdiat of Imam<sup>AS</sup>) but with munkiran (rejecters of Mahdiat of Imam<sup>AS</sup>) as well.

It is narrated that some scholars from the munkiran came to meet him. Hazrat Meeran Syed Muhammad Mahdi Mau’ood<sup>AS</sup> was busy with inviting the people towards Allah. Each of scholars had a thought in his mind. With the intention of testing the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, they came and sat in the audience.

As soon as they sat, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> turned his attention towards the scholars and recited the Ayat “Say: I do not say to you that I have with me the treasures of Allah or know the unseen.” (Surah al-Anam, 6:50) The scholars were astonished and understood that this was the answer to the thoughts in their minds.

The effect of divine ecstasy began to manifest on their hearts. They could not come to their senses even after the congregation dispersed. They even forgot the way to their houses and it dawned upon their hearts that this is what Islam is (whatever was explained by the Imam<sup>AS</sup>) and the rest is misleading.

Later these very scholars thought that their experience was misleading and called this Faayez-e-Fuyuzaat (Bestower of Bounties, i.e., the Imam<sup>AS</sup>) as a sorcerer and a soothsayer and one who had gone astray and who misleads. They started a propaganda campaign against the word and deed of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and forbade young people from meeting him saying that this person possessed such enchanting powers that after seeing his face the heart becomes restless and all religious and worldly deeds are ruined.

This miracle of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was among the miracles of all Prophets and Messengers. Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> has said that no prophet was sent but to take people away from the world and towards Allah.

Miracle 38

---

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> was of medium stature just like the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>. But when the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was with people either in prayers or when walking together, he appeared to be taller than everyone else.

Miracle 40

---

The effect of the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> personality on the hearts of people was same as that of the effect of the personality of prophets. As soon as one reached the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and met him, one would lose all inclination towards the world and the remembrance of Allah would take root in him. Whatever could not be achieved through years of seclusion and religious exercises was achieved in a moment in the company of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. This was the experience of not one or two people, but of all those people who met the Imam<sup>AS</sup> - men, women, scholars, unlettered, free people, slaves, adults and children. This was only a low ranking miracle of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. If Allah's bounty is taken into reckoning, there is no end.

It is narrated that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> arrived at the village of Sood. A boy from the village, who was the son of a religious leader, fell into divine ecstasy and followed the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The boy's mother told her husband, "Go and bring my son from Syed Muhammad<sup>AS</sup> or else I will not live with you.” The husband left the house in anger saying, “I will ask Syed Muhammad<sup>AS</sup> if he was luring young boys with mellifluous talk and if he was taking them away to sell them.” He reached the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and found the Imam<sup>AS</sup> giving a discourse on the Oneness of Allah’s and was calling the people towards Allah. As soon as he saw the Imam<sup>AS</sup> he forgot all those things which he intended to tell and sat down with attention. At that moment, a man brought a tray of sweets and presented them to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> gave instructions for sawiyet (equal distribution). The Imam<sup>AS</sup> too received one piece of the sweet which he took and placed on his lap. A few moments later another person brought some sweets which the Imam<sup>AS</sup> again instructed to be distributed equally. From this too, the Imam’s<sup>AS</sup> share was given. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> gave the share which he had received earlier to someone else, then accepted the new share and said, “A believer does not hoard.” This person, who had come with many things against the Imam<sup>AS</sup> in his heart, became so absorbed that he could not control his tears. After this, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> bade farewell to all and mounted his horse. The man’s son, who had joined the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, saw his father and wanting to escape from him, he ran and stood in front of the Imam’s<sup>AS</sup> horse. When the father came to one side, the son ran to the other side. The father then asked, “Son, why do you run? I too have been so captivated by these divine feet (of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>) that I can’t fulfil the promise I made to your mother. I too do not wish to separate from these divine feet.” After this the man renounced the world and chose the company of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

He sent a message to his wife that he does not wish to separate himself from these divine feet (of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>) and she can join him if she wished. Otherwise, the choice was hers.

Miracle 41

The Shams-e-Vilayet, Mazhar-e-Hidayet, Khulasa-e-Ibteda-wo-Inteha (Sun of Sainthood, the Manifestation of Guidance, the Epitome of the Beginning and the End) (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) bestowed guidance on whomever he wished, by the command of Allah.

It is narrated that one day, a man came to Hazrat Meeran<sup>AS</sup> and questioned, "Allah sent Rasoolullah<sup>SLM</sup> for the guidance of humanity and commanded 'Call to the way of your Lord'. (Surah an-Nahl, 16:125) In spite of this Allah says 'You are not responsible for people's guidance (O Prophet)—it is Allah Who guides whoever He wills.' (Surah al-Baqarah, 2:272). How do you explain this?" The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Wait for an hour, I will answer your question." An hour later, a traveller wearing the sacred thread of Hindus and bearing the looks and demeanour of infidels came to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> called the person near him and commanded, "Remove the religious mark on your forehead, throw away your sacred thread, recite the Islamic testification (kalima e Tayyiba) and accept me as Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>, stand on high ground and recite the Book of Allah." The man followed all the commands of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> without any delay. He became a Muslim and a believer of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> and became a Hafiz<sup>16</sup> of the Book of Allah. After this the Imam<sup>AS</sup> addressed the questioner and said, “Did you see it (the divine answer to your question)? If Rasoolullah<sup>SLM</sup> and his perfect follower (i.e., the Imam<sup>AS</sup>) so desire, they can guide and convert all the people in the east and the west to Islam. But their (Muhammad’s<sup>SLM</sup> and Mahdi’s<sup>AS</sup>) work is to propagate. To guide people is Allah’s work.”

Miracle 42

---

When Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> stuck a dry stick in the soil, it turned into a lush green tree in the blink of an eye.

It is narrated that one day, his companion, Bandagi Miyan Shah Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> asked the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, “Meeranji, the scholars say that the sign of the Mahdi is that dry trees will become fresh.” The Imam<sup>AS</sup>, who at that time was brushing his teeth with a miswak<sup>17</sup>, smiled and stuck the miswak into the soil. Immediately it became a lush green tree. Then, Hamsar-e-Laulak (the Equal of the Reason for All Creations)<sup>18</sup> removed the miswak from the ground and said, “Miyam Nizam, this is the work of jugglers. The purport of the Hadees is that at the time of Mahdi, dead hearts will come alive.”

One day the Imam<sup>AS</sup> went to the river Sambhar<sup>19</sup> in Gujarat for a bath. He saw a stranger in the river and told him, "Come and scrub my back." The stranger came and scrubbed the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> back. After which the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Now you sit and I will scrub your back." The moment the Imam<sup>AS</sup> put his holy hand on the stranger's back, he was overcome with divine ecstasy, the veil was lifted from his eyes and the hidden world was revealed to him.

Miracle 44

It is narrated that the Imam-e Oolul-Albab<sup>AS</sup> (Leader of Men Endowed with Insight) (that is, the Seekers of Allah) travelled into the sea a distance of a few manzil <sup>20</sup>, Allah knows the distance better. There was a violent storm in the sea from morning to evening and the ship was on the verge of sinking.

The companions said, "Meeranji, We servants are going to Kabatullah Al-Haram on the command of the Lord of the Worlds. A person who works as per the command of Allah will not perish." Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Be patient. Who is this servant of Allah?"

The storm intensified and the passengers in the ship became uneasy and restless. They started crying and pleading.

Then, Bandagi Miyan Syed Salamullah<sup>RZ</sup> in great anguish told the Imam-e Oolul-Albab<sup>AS</sup>, “There is nothing to save the ship from sinking.” In response, Hazrat Amir<sup>AS</sup> (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) said, “What can this servant do? Has this servant ever told you that this servant’s command prevails over Allah’s command?”

After hearing this explanation, Miyan Salamullah<sup>RZ</sup> asked, “Don’t you possess the keys to Allah’s treasures?” At this the Possessor of Sainthood (Vilayet Panah) (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) said, “If the Master has given the keys of His treasures to His servant, what authority does the servant have to open the locks without the Master’s permission?”

After a while the Imam<sup>AS</sup> smiled. He got up and went to the edge of the ship. He gestured with his hand towards the sea and the storm subsided immediately. The companions asked, “Meeranji, What was the reason for this storm?” The Imam<sup>AS</sup> replied, “The fishes of the sea had come out to see us. Since this servant was not in their sight, they could not see us. Therefore, they were making a noise and uproar and were pleading. When this servant went to the edge of the ship, the fishes saw us and returned to their places and the storm subsided.”

He further said, “Amongst the fishes was a fish which was created just after the sea was created. Allah had promised it that He will bestow it with the vision of the Seal of Sainthood of Muhammad<sup>AS</sup> (Imam<sup>AS</sup>).” It is written in one parable that this was the same fish which kept Yunus<sup>AS</sup> in it’s belly. Allah had promised that He would show Mahdi Mau’ood<sup>AS</sup> to it. Hence the fish came with other fishes and saw His promise fulfilled.

Miracle 45

---

One day in the city of Farah, Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> had taken a bath and had spread his hair for drying and was in the remembrance of Allah when suddenly a big snake came out of a hole and raised it’s hood. Bandagi Hazrat Meeran Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> lowered his head in front of the snake and said, “If Allah’s command is to bite, then I agree to it.” After this, the snake withdrew it’s head into the hole and started speaking, “O Hazrat, for the past few years I have been desirous of meeting you. Now we have come to see your divine beauty.” The snake then came out of the hole completely. It came near the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and rolled over the divine feet. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> stretched both his legs before the snake. The snake rolled over both the feet and then went back into the hole.

It is widely believed that while going the snake said that it was from the progeny of the snake which had bitten Abu Bakr<sup>RZ</sup> in the presence of Mustafa<sup>SLM</sup> in the cave.

Miracle 46

---

During the journey to Khorasan, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> reached a place which was infested with snakes in huge numbers like ants.

The companions said, "Meeranji, how can we spend the night here?" They were still plagued by these worrying thoughts when the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Allah has commanded the snakes that, 'Our beloved is coming this way, so go into your burrows and do not come out for three days.'" And this was what actually took place.

Some companions said that they will not sleep here and will spend the night sitting awake. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Tonight, sleep with peace of mind." He even forbade the adherence to Naubat<sup>21</sup> which was practiced every night. And it happened just as the Imam<sup>AS</sup> had said.

Miracle 47

---

Just as the snakes and scorpions were submissive to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, so too were all lions and other beasts. It is narrated that one day on the way to Khorasan, a person told the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, "Meeranji, this is an old route. Due to disuse over the years, the path has almost been erased. Nobody uses this route since it is infested with snakes and lions and there are other hazards too." Imam<sup>AS</sup> replied, "All snakes and lions have made a covenant with us that we will not be troubled by them."

In this context, there is a famous narration that, on this very path, the Shahenshah-e-Vilayet<sup>AS</sup> (Emperor of Sainthood) (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) was taking rest under a tree. Bandagi Miyan Shah

Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> had put his infant daughter to sleep in a cradle which was hung from the branch of a tree. When the place was vacated, he was so engrossed in Allah that he forgot his daughter and accompanied the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. After travelling for nine miles, he remembered his daughter. He informed Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> about this. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Your daughter is safe there. Go and bring her." When he went there he saw a big lion guarding her. On seeing Miyan Shah Nizam<sup>RZ</sup>, the lion stood up, bent down its head and took to the jungle. Miyan Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> took his daughter and returned to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 48

---

When any oppressor and despot came with his power and pelf to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, he would go back as an obedient man. The incidents of Mir Zunoon and Shah Beg are famous in this context. They came with majesty, awe, power and an army. Ultimately, they became submissive to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and left.

Miracle 49

---

Water, fire and sword could not prevail over the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Thus, it is well known about Mir Zunoon who tried to test the Imam<sup>AS</sup> by using his sword.

Miracle 50

---

On the command of Allah, the Amir-e-Ameeran Peer-e-Peeran<sup>AS</sup> (Leader of Leaders, the Guide of Guides) came for the circumambulation of the Kaaba. The Shahenshah-e-Vilayet<sup>AS</sup> (Emperor of Sainthood) (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) asked Shah Nizam<sup>RZ</sup>, "You had come to the Kabatullah earlier too, what did you see then and what do you observe now." Miyan Shah Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> replied, "Meeranji, the first time I saw kaabatullah without its Master, and now we see it along with its Master." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> then asked, "What else do you see?" Miyan Shah Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> replied, "Meeranji, Kabatullah is going around Hazrat Meeran<sup>AS</sup> and reciting 'So let them worship the Lord of this House.'" (Surah Quraysh, 106:3)

Miracle 51

---

One day Bandagi Miyan Shah Dilawar<sup>RZ</sup> was pouring water for Hazrat Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> to perform ablutions (wuzu). He asked, "Meeranji, every drop falling from your divine beard is saying, 'This is Mahdi Mau'ood, this is Khalifatullah.'" Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Yes, wherever this servant turns to, every atom of all creations announces it. But whoever has been given inner hearing, as you have been given, hears it."

Miracle 52

---

One day the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was taking bath for the Friday prayers. Miyan Sheikh Bheek<sup>RZ</sup> was pouring water for the bath. Every drop of water falling from the divine body was saying, 'We thank Allah that we have been honoured (by falling) on this divine body.'

Miracle 53

---

One day the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was performing ablutions (wuzu) and Bibi Fatima<sup>RZ</sup> (the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> daughter) was pouring water. An owl came down and sat and hooted. Bibi Fatima<sup>RZ</sup> said, "Meeranji, people say that these birds were humans in the previous ages." As soon as she said this, the owl started speaking and said, "O Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>! What Bibi Fatima<sup>RZ</sup> says is not true, we were not humans earlier." Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> smiled and told Bibi Fatima<sup>RZ</sup> that the owl had said like this.

Bandagi Miyan Syed Khundmir<sup>RZ</sup> was travelling with the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. He was so immersed in Allah that he fell behind and all the other companions went ahead with the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Bandagi Miyan Syed Khundmir<sup>RZ</sup> searched a lot for his companions, but due to the abundance of grass and trees he could not locate them. With two companions, he was in this desolated place for three days and was hungry and traumatised.

Suddenly a man with a long white beard appeared with a fat sheep. He sacrificed the sheep, skinned it and offered the meat to Bandagi Miyan<sup>RZ</sup> and said that Allah has sent this for you. Bandagi Miyan<sup>RZ</sup> and his two friends consumed the meat.

After this the man with the long white beard said, "Your caravan passed this way." When Bandagi Miyan<sup>RZ</sup> took the path which the man showed, he heard a voice coming from the stones and plants saying 'This is Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>, this is Khalifatullah.' Without looking left or right, Bandagi Miyan<sup>RZ</sup> followed the voice and reached the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 55

---

When Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> went to the territory of Khorasan, news spread in the city and the country that a Syed has come from Hind (India) and is making the claim of Mahdiat — that he is Mahdi Mau'ood and his acceptance is obligatory on everyone.

On hearing the news, the officials took to oppression and sent an army to plunder the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> was sitting with composure along with his companions. The companions sought his permission for a battle. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "This servant follows the command of the Lord of the Worlds, and does not follow anyone nor his own thinking. Be patient. If you are following me, then obey us." Ultimately the companions, acting as per the exalted command, presented their swords and other weaponry to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The officials seized the swords and other belongings of the fugara and took a headcount of the people to be imprisoned the next morning.

That very night, the official saw the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> in his dream holding a spear, standing on his chest and saying, 'You have been disrespectful to my son Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> — all that disrespectfulness has been towards me.' and turned the official's seat upside down and put him under it. When the official woke up from this nightmare, he found himself experiencing the effects of the nightmare. His body was in great pain and he felt that death was near. People came, lifted him and treated him, but there was no relief from the illness. Ultimately, the official said that this was the fruit of what was planted the day before. He requested to be taken to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, who he said, had sent an arrow of curse on him. He said that the only course of action to save his life was in the hands of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. He hoped that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> would forgive his mistake on seeing his helplessness and humility.

Helpless and aggrieved, disgraced and miserable, he was brought to the doorstep of Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "What can we do? We do not know any medicine." Bandagi Miyan Shah Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> said, "Allah has made this zath of high attributes (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) a mercy for all worlds. Bestow some mercy on this ignorant man too." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> gave the paskhurda of water. As soon as the official consumed the paskhurda, he became healthy and got up. He kissed the feet of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and asked forgiveness for his mistake.

Then he said, "Please give me the list of things taken from the Master's companions yesterday. We will search for them and return them." Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> replied, "We have not lost anything from our possessions. The thing that we want is still with us." That is, the remembrance of the Friend (i.e., God) and the thought of meeting Him. Thus the official became a believer of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> and went through the rites of discipleship (tarbiat).

Miracle 56

---

Before the claim of Mahdiat, whichever city the Imam<sup>AS</sup> went to, an unseen voice proclaimed that Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> has come. People of the city enquired with the companions if this was Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>. One day Miyan Syed Salamullah<sup>RZ</sup> asked that Imam<sup>AS</sup>, "Meeranji, everyone asks me and Meeranji has not explained the meaning. Is anyone superior to you." Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> smiled and said, "Allah Most High is superior to Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>."

---

Shah Rukn<sup>RH</sup> was a perfect majzooob<sup>22</sup>. He had given evidence of the Mahdiat of Imam Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>. Thus, non-believers of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> came to Shah Rukn<sup>RH</sup> for glad tidings and the answer given by Shah Rukn<sup>RH</sup> is not a secret. This is a manifest miracle because the evidence given by kaamileen (perfect people) is an clear proof for believers.

Miracle 58

---

Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> went to the house of Mulla Moinuddin, the teacher of the city of Peeranpatan. On reaching the house, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> sent his salaam (greetings). Making an excuse, the Mulla mounted a wall and sent a message that he has mounted (a vehicle) and gone towards the jungle. Hazrat

Imam<sup>AS</sup> smiled and said that the Mulla had mounted such a vehicle that will never take him to his destination.

This is a miracle of prophets, that on the command of Allah, they have given news of the unseen.

Miracle 59

---

On the way to Khorasan, there was no water for a distance of a few days travel. The companions learnt that water would not be available. After this, on the command of Allah, a water laden cloud came over the heads of the companions of the Imam Oolul Albab<sup>AS</sup> (Imam of Wise People<sup>AS</sup>) and it rained. The jungle was filled with water. Each person quenched his thirst.

The journey continued for a few more days without water and when there was a need for water, the same thing occurred again. Thus, Allah bestowed. Whenever there was a need for water, it rained. All ponds were filled so that wherever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> travelled there was water.

Miracle 60

---

Wherever Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> camped for the night, a wall of copper naturally came up around the Daira. Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> had not told anyone about this. One night, the mount of Miyan Hyder Mahajir<sup>RZ</sup> freed itself from its place and wandered. Miyan Hyder<sup>RZ</sup> went looking for it, but wherever he went he could not find the path to go out of the Daira. He then went to Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> and described his experience. "Whichever direction I go, I find a fence", he said. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> explained that wherever we camp for the night Allah creates a wall of copper around this group for the whole night. Therefore nobody should think of going out till Subh-e-Kazib (false dawn).

Miracle 61

---

One day Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> went towards the jungle along the the bank of a river to attend to nature's call. Miyan Syed Salamullah<sup>RZ</sup> was accompanying him. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> smiled and said, "Miyan Syed Salamullah, what goes on in your mind?" Miyan Syed Salamullah<sup>RZ</sup> said, "Meeranji, the scholars say that the sign of Mahdi is that the mountains on the way he passes through will turn into gold, the earth will throw up its treasures and Mahdi will distribute this to the people." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Do you want from it (from the wealth)?" He replied, "I have heard it, so I narrate it."

After answering the call of nature, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> came out and said, "See." Lo and behold, the mountains had turned into gold and the sand of the river had turned into pearls. Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Take whatever you want and inform your companions that whoever needs wealth may take it." Miyan Syed Salamullah<sup>RZ</sup> said, "I do not need anything. If you permit, I will take something to show to the companions." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Take once." Miyan Syed Salamullah<sup>RZ</sup> took a handful and put it in a cloth.

He described the incident to the companions and opened the cloth to show them the pearls. He then said that Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> has said that whoever wants the wealth may go and take it. All the companions<sup>RZ</sup> replied in one voice that they did not need anything other than Allah. This was told to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "One who desires wealth does not reach Allah and he who desires Allah does not like wealth. Therefore (when people who desire Allah do not desire wealth), to whom will Mahdi give the wealth after extracting it from the earth? Scholars are deprived of the real essence (of the hadees). Extracting wealth from the earth, giving it to people and leading them astray is the attribute of Dajjal (Anti-Christ). The purport of the hadees is that Mahdi will reveal the Vilayet-e-Muqayyada-Muhammadi and explain the meanings of Quran which were not explained at the time of Hazrat Rasoolullah<sup>SLM</sup> and whatever comes in the way of Allah without expectation, is distributed so that the seekers of Allah are helped by this."

Miracle 62

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> had camped on the way to Thatta. The companions<sup>RZ</sup> forgot to tether the animals used for riding. The animals wandered into a neighbouring field. The owner of the field complained to the ruler of that place. The ruler came to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and said, "The attribute of Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> is that a lion and a lamb stay together and do not attack each other, whereas your animals devour our fields." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Investigate. Whatever the animals have eaten, take its compensation from us."

The ruler sent his men to ascertain the facts. They reported back that the animals had not eaten anything. It was as if someone had muzzled their mouths. The ruler was astonished and himself went to investigate. When he saw the scene with his own eyes, he accepted the Mahdiat of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Many others of that place too reposed faith in the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 63

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> left Thatta and travelled towards Khorasan, they reached a place where the road branched into two paths. The safe path was roundabout route and took three days to cross. The other path was straight and could be covered in a short time but was infested with lions and snakes. Nobody used this dangerous path. The companions put forth the essence of the two paths before the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Allah is your protector, take the straight path."

They camped at a place infested with snakes. When the companions woke up in the morning they saw a snake circling the camp like a boundary. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> was informed about it. He said that this big snake was the descendant of the snake that had come to see the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> in the cave. The Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> had promised the snake that one of its descendants would see the Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>. Therefore this snake had come with this objective. Therefore none should stand in its way as it might hurt someone just as Abu Bakr<sup>RZ</sup> was hurt. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> came out, showed himself to the snake and spat on the ground. The snake consumed the sacred saliva from the ground and then went away. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said that the snake had become a Muslim.

---

One day Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> was giving Bayan-e-Quran between Asr and Maghrib prayers. Jinns were passing that way. When they heard the bayan of Quran, they stopped and listened. When Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> completed the bayan, the entire group came and met the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and accepted his Mahdiat and became his disciples. They spread the news in their community. Many more Jinns came and accepted the Mahdiat of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. This was an evident miracle just like the miracle of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>.

Miracle 65

A few days before he passed away, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> performed the Juma prayers in the Jamia Masjid in Farah. After which he made the intention of witr in a loud voice in the presence of scholars and performed the witr prayer. A distinguished scholar from the congregation said, "If this Syed is Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>, he will not come for the next Friday prayer. I have seen in Hadith that the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup> also performed the witr and before the onset of the next Friday, he departed from this world."

Ultimately, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> met his Creator before the next Friday. This is not hidden from the believers of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 66

---

After the Beloved of Allah (the Imam<sup>AS</sup>) passed away, a quarrel broke out between the believers of Farah and Rach. Each group wanted to bury the Imam<sup>AS</sup> on their own land. Bandagi Meeran Syed Mahmood<sup>RZ</sup> and Bandagi Miyan Syed Khundmir<sup>RZ</sup> told them, "We are the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> family and his inheritors, so how does this concern you? We will make the tomb at the place the Imam<sup>AS</sup> is pleased with."

Ultimately, the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> bier stopped between Farah and Rach and did not move an inch forward or backward. On the basis of this occurrence, the companions<sup>RZ</sup> said that the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> choice was for this place only. The tomb was made at that place only. This is an open miracle for the believers of Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 67

---

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> was giving the bayan in Jalor. A man came to him and enquired about his pearls which were missing. "Where can I find my pearls?" he asked. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> replied, "May your pearls be burnt! Listen to what Allah is saying (listen to the bayan)."

Later the person returned to his house and found that the pearls and other wealth which he had kept in a chamber were lost in a fire.

Miracle 68

---

One day the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was giving the bayan to a group of women who were seated behind a pardah (veil). He then read the following couplet in Purbi language:

Ek soti sej bulaye                    -            Ek lali la behlaye
Ek seva karat nibhaye               -            Di kaun suhagan aahe
Jo shah mukh dekhan chahe
Baha chahe to arsi                   -            Manjha narha hai arsi
Laki kayi honk dekha najaye

A woman who had recently renounced the world (Tark-e-Duniya), moved the pardah aside and said to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, “I have come as a suhagan (a married woman whose husband is still alive) and I wish to see Allah.” A child-maidservant was standing near the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said to the woman, “Bibi, leave the playfulness. Allah bestows His vision on this child-maidservant.” At that very moment, the child-maidservant became unconscious and fell down on the ground and experienced divine ecstasy for sometime.

Miracle 69

One day in Farah, Bandagi Malik Maroof<sup>RZ</sup> asked Bandagi Miyan Nizam Ghalib<sup>RZ</sup>, “Can you read?” Miyan Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> replied, “Yes, I can read a little.” Malik Maroof<sup>RZ</sup> said, “How about reading some books after zikr?” Miyan Nizam<sup>RZ</sup> said, “Sounds good.” Malik Maroof<sup>RZ</sup> said, “Whatever work I do, I do not do it without the permission from Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Come, let’s ask for his permission.” With this intention, both the companions went to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. As soon as Imam<sup>AS</sup> saw them, without their asking he recited this quatrain.

Desire the knowledge that will remain with you
The breath that, from yourself, will liberate you
Until you grasp the knowledge of obligations (farz)
Know, the attributes of the Truth (Allah) will elude you

Then he said, "Follow whatever this servant says so that you become Beena (one who sees Allah)."

Miracle 70

---

One day Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> was giving the Bayan-e-Quran. He said that Allah has bestowed the rank of Ibrahim Khalilullah Salawatullahi Alaih upon Miyan Makhdoom<sup>RZ</sup> and Miyan Azeezullah<sup>RZ</sup> and had they lived, they would have achieved more, but they departed after the discourse. The brothers kissed each other's hands and went their ways. One brother expired after three days and the other expired after nine days. Allah be praised, whatever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said happened without delay.

Miracle 71

---

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said that the effect of truth is like the crescent moon - it increases everyday. The effect of falsehood is like the full moon on the fourteenth night (of the lunar month) - it decreases everyday till it disappears. Just as Allah Subhana Ta'ala says, "He it is Who sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth, that He might cause it to prevail over all religions, though the polytheists may be averse. ” (Surah at-Tawbah, 9:33).

Whatever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> of the Firsts and the Lasts (Imam-e-Awwaleen-wo-Aakhireen) has said is true, because whatever he said happened. Allah increased the truth and this matter is no secret.

Miracle 72

---

Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> has said that after him, the spiritual bounty (faiz) of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> will continue to remain till the Day of Judgement. Whatever the Imam-e Awwaleen-o-Aakhireen<sup>AS</sup> (Imam<sup>AS</sup> of the Firsts and the Lasts) has said is true, thus this matter is revealed to People of Certainty (Arbab-e-Yaqeen).

Miracle 73

---

It is narrated that a young man came to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> in the way of Allah. The young boy's mother beat her breast in agony and wailed, "Ah Mahdi! Wah Mahdi!" People reported to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> that she had gone mad. Hazrat<sup>AS</sup> said that after him till the Day of Judgement, there would be Mahdavis like these (who would come in the way of Allah, that is those who renounce the world) and there would be breast-beating in every house. It happened just as Imam<sup>AS</sup> had said. Everyday many people renounce the world and abandon the people of the world. Such people who renounce the world are found as per the command of Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 74

It is narrated that Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> said that after him, Mahdis (the rightly guided people) will remain till the Day of Judgement. Whatever the Imam Oolul Albab<sup>AS</sup> (Imam of Wise People<sup>AS</sup>) has said is true. Therefore, this matter is not hidden from people of wisdom.

Miracle 75

---

It is narrated that Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> has said that just as after Mustafa<sup>SLM</sup> and his companions, there were Auliya-Allah (Friends of Allah) like Bayazid Bistami, Sultan Ibrahim Adham, Sheikh Junaid and Sheikh Shibli<sup>RA</sup>, there will be Auliya Allah after the Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> and his companions as well. Thus, whatever the Mukhbir-e-Sadiq<sup>AS</sup> (Informant of the Truth<sup>AS</sup>) said is the truth because such people as he had informed about were found in Mahdavis. An example of such people were Bandagi Miyan Syed Shahabuddin Shahabul Haq<sup>RA</sup> and Bandagi Miyan Syed Mahmood Syedanji Khatim Murshid<sup>RA</sup> who were the khalifas (vice-regents) of Bandagi Malik Ilahdad Khalifa-e-Groh<sup>RZ</sup>.

Miracle 76

---

It is narrated that Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> said at Farah that he learnt that there was no place of rest for Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> and his community (companions<sup>RZ</sup>). Whatever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said happened. We believe and we accept.

Miracle 77

---

A disbeliever woman came to Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> and asked for his paskhurda, because she had become helpless due to labour pains. She regained good health after consuming the paskhurda. After a long time she died. The idol worshippers tried to burn her body but it did not burn. Finally, they became helpless and buried her. Glory to Allah, such was the effect of the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> paskhurda and this was from the specialities of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>.

Miracle 78

It is narrated that a dog would accompany the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. One day, a snake bit the dog. The dog came to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> with its tongue hanging out. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> enquired as to what had happened to the dog. The companions replied "Meeranji, a snake has bit him." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> put some of his holy saliva on the dog's tongue. Soon the snake poison vanished.

On another occasion, this very dog was bitten by a snake. It lay dying. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> was informed about it. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> came to the dog, showed kindness and put the paskhurda of water with his hand in its mouth. As soon as the drop of paskhurda reached its throat, the dog recovered and stood up.

Miracle 79

---

One day a possessed youth was brought before the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup>, as was his custom, spoke pleasantries to him and asked, "Which people are you from?" The possessed youth said, "I am the prince of Jinns." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> gave him paskhurda to drink. As soon as he drank it, he let out a shriek and said, "O God! Give more paskhurda." When he consumed more paskhurda and it reached inside his veins he accepted Islam. He asked for paskhurda yet again. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> gave him paskhurda, he consumed it and read out the Islamic Testification (kalima). With great humility he travelled along with the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 80

---

It is reported that when the Imam<sup>AS</sup> travelled with all glory and reached the entrance of a city. A man who was seated at the entrance said, "You are businessmen, so pay the toll tax." The companions reported this to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> smiled and said, "Call him here. Some share can be given to him." The man came with hopes. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> recited this doha

We do not carry cloves or betel nuts
Nor any mountain spices
We carry only the words of Allah
What tax will you take from us?

After hearing this, the man received his share (of faiz) and was overcome with divine ecstasy. He kept on clapping and saying, "Hazrat<sup>AS</sup> asked us to be true to our thoughts". The man saw the face of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and happily joined his company.

Miracle 81

---

Nothing of the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> divine body remained in this world just as nothing of the Prophet's<sup>SLM</sup> blessed body remained. Bibi Ilahdati<sup>RZ</sup> (the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> wife) had stored the blessed tooth of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> in a box. Later, she opened the box, the tooth had disappeared. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "This is Allah's Noor (divine light), never will it remain separated from Allah." This is what happened.

Miracle 82

---

Miyan Syed Ameen Muhammad<sup>RZ</sup> has narrated that whenever he has seen Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> standing, he noticed that both the hands of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> reached his knees. The same attributes about the hands of Prophet Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup> have been described in the relevant chapters in the books of his biography.

Miracle 83

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> travelled towards Deccan, he reached a place infested by a band of sixty dacoits. When the dacoits saw the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> army, they were tempted to attack it. The companions informed the Imam<sup>AS</sup> that the dacoits had blocked the way. Hazrat Meeran<sup>AS</sup> said, "Be with Allah (be in remembrance of Allah) and continue on the path." He himself got down from his horse, drew his sword and shield and started walking in front of his army. There were seventy companions with the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. As soon as the dacoits saw the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, they fled.

The next day, one of the companions who had fallen behind the Imam<sup>AS</sup>'s army accidentally reached the place of the dacoits. The leader of the dacoits was upset and said, "What a powerful man was at the head of that army! And behind him was the army of hundreds of elephants and armoured soldiers." The companions conveyed the dacoit's story to the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> heard this and said, "Be with Allah. There is no superiority of this servant in this matter."

---

A cloud always hovered over the Imam<sup>AS</sup> to provide shade to him.

Miracle 85

---

An angel always used to announce, "This is Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> the Khalifatullah (Viceregent of Allah)."

Miracle 86

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> picked a particle from amongst many and placed it on his palm, the particle recited the tasbeeh (praising God).

Miracle 87

---

When Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> was aboard a ship, he accepted gifts in the way of Allah from the passengers for three days and refused the gifts after three days. He put his trust in Allah. Out of nowhere another ship came and a few people from it came aboard and enquired, "Who are the mutawakkil people (those who trust Allah) on this ship." The passengers pointed towards the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. They came to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and said, "Allah has sent this, please accept." Hazrat<sup>AS</sup> told the companions<sup>RZ</sup>, "Take it. This is Halal-e-Tayyib (permissible and excellent)." It contained dates, rice, ghee, fish, salt, firewood, cooking vessel, sweet water and some gold coins. They gave this and left.

---

Whenever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> cast his blessed glance on anyone, the person would experience divine ecstasy. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> has said a number of times that one glance of this servant was better than a thousand years of accepted worship.

Miracle 89

---

This is the story of Haji Mali<sup>RZ</sup>. He desired to have the vision of Allah. He met the person with the attributes of a prophet (Imam<sup>AS</sup>), who delivered him to Allah and bestowed on him the vision of Allah. The desirous was taken to the object of his desire in this world. This is a great miracle.

Miracle 90

---

When the Imam<sup>AS</sup> reached the port of Diu, he camped there for a few days. The story of a drunkard is famous here. He came to meet the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Hazrat<sup>AS</sup>, as was his wont, gave the bayan on the prohibition of intoxicants. At the end, a companion came to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and whispered in his ear that this youth is a drunkard and says that if Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> asks him not to drink, he would give up drinking. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Whatever I have to preach, I do. Whether someone forsakes it or not, is up to him." But the youth again said that if the Imam<sup>AS</sup> asks him, he would quit drinking.

One day he took a wine vat whose lid was sealed and broke open the seal. He found a decomposed dead rat inside. The second time, the wine vat broke into pieces when he tried to open it. The third time, as soon as he took a sip from the wine vat, he experienced stomach ache, motions, vomiting and almost became lifeless. His nose was smelling of wine and he was disgusted with the smell. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> saw his poor condition, stood at his head and said, "One should not rebel in the presence of Allah." He gave paskhurda and the man regained health.

Miracle 91

---

It is narrated that a Majzooob (a man in divine ecstasy) had lodged himself at the doorstep of Miyan Yousuf Suhait<sup>RZ</sup> for a few years. One day he suddenly announced that Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> had been born and left the place.

In due course of time Bandagi Miyan Yousuf<sup>RZ</sup> met the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. One day he was thinking about the announcement of the Majzooob, when the Imam<sup>AS</sup> asked him, "Miyan Yousuf, what are you thinking?" Miyan Yousuf<sup>RZ</sup> told the Imam<sup>AS</sup> about the Majzooob's declaration and said that had noted the day, month and year when this incident occurred but he had forgotten where he had kept the written note. At this the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Go to your library and look for the note in such and such cupboard, in such and such book, on such and such page."

Miyan Yousuf<sup>RZ</sup> found the note as per what the Imam<sup>AS</sup> had said. When he compared the time, date, month and year of birth of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> with the note, there was no difference. Later Miyan Yousuf Suhait<sup>RZ</sup> saw the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> Mohr-e-Vilayet (Seal of Sainthood) and accepted the Mahdiat of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>.

Miracle 92

---

It is narrated by Syed Akhi and he from Peer Muhammad Waiz and he narrated to Sheikh Muhammad, 'I was in the company of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> for a long time. One day the Imam<sup>AS</sup> asked, "Peer Muhammad. What's your condition?" I replied, "I do a lot of remembrance of Allah (zikr) and hope for some eagerness and love for Allah but it does not increase." After this, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Come. Sit near me. Do the zikr as I do it." At that time the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> knees and this servant's knees were touching each other. I saw the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> face and started zikr. I then saw divine light (noor) coming out from the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> eyes and flowing on my knees. We know and Allah knows what ensued.'

Miracle 93

One day the Imam<sup>AS</sup> gave the bayan of an Ayat (Verse) of Quran with meanings that were never heard before. A scholar was sitting there. He became angry and said, "Wherefrom do you explain such meanings?" The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "From Allah." The scholar angrily said, "Although these meanings are better, they should also be found in tafseer as well." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> asked, "Which tafseer do you have at your house?" The scholar recited the names of a few tafseers. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Bring such and such tafseer here." The scholar said, "I have read that tafseer many times, but it does not contain such an explanation (as you gave)." Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "For once, bring the tafseer here."

The scholar went to his house, opened the tafseer, flipped through each page, but could not find the said meaning. He brought the tafseer and placed it before the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> pointed to the margin of a page which was completely blank and said, "See what is written." What does the scholar see! The very meaning which was explained by the Imam<sup>AS</sup> was written on it. The scholar was astonished at this and fell at the feet of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and said, "This is written by the greatness of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup>" and accepted the writing.

Miracle 94

It is narrated by Khoob Jeo that he experienced such discord within him that he began to doubt the Unity of Allah. He came to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and said, "Oh Lord! Shirk (polytheism) has tied us up in such a way that I am unable to perform zikh." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> said, "Come." Khoob Jeo narrates that, "Then it appeared to me as if the Imam<sup>AS</sup> tore open my torso and straightened my heart which had flipped over. At that moment I woke up and realised that all shirk had disappeared from my heart." An gnostic (Arif) has so beautifully said:

Ingenious and guide, you are Leader of the guides Mahdi, you are
I will become an idolater if I call you not the Mahdi that, you are

Miracle 95

---

The Imam<sup>AS</sup> reached Jaisalmer and camped there. A companion<sup>RZ</sup> came running to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and informed him that an animal was on the verge of dying, so what was to be done. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> turned his attention to Allah and then said, "Slaughter it." If the disbelievers try any excesses, Allah will reveal a miracle : the miracle of Hazrat Rasoolullah<sup>SLM</sup>. Which was that when the disbelievers saw his face they either ran away or they accepted him. Allah says, "O Syed Muhammad<sup>AS</sup>, We have made you the Khatam-e-Vilayet-e-Muhammadi<sup>SLM</sup> (Seal of the Sainthood of Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup>) and have given this (miracle of Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>) to you."

Then Miyan Abdul Majeed<sup>RZ</sup> dismounted from his camel and slaughtered the animal. The other companions started cutting the meat into pieces.

This news reached the king and he came with his army. As soon as his eyes fell on Hazrat Imam<sup>AS</sup>, he dismounted from his horse, placed his head at the feet of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> and said, "The lord of the cow has killed it, what can we do."

Miracle 96

---

It is narrated that a dog had taken to the company of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Its name was Brother Yakka. Wherever the Imam<sup>AS</sup> camped, the dog stayed too. It gave the prayer call like a Mouzzen<sup>23</sup> five times a day. Sometimes the Mouzzen woke up from his sleep after hearing the dog. From the early morning (Fajr) prayers till late in the morning, it sat on its haunches and performed zikr-e-khafi.<sup>24</sup> Similarly, from Asr to Isha prayers also, it performed zikr. It did not say the Azan during these timings. It did not bark during these times. It fasted during the month of Ramazan. Many people, with the intention of testing it, kept food in front of it, but the dog never ate the food. After this, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> fixed one share of distribution (sawiyet) for it and handed it over to a companion<sup>RZ</sup>. When some companions asked about the condition of the dog, the Imam<sup>AS</sup> replied, "This dog is a friend of the dog of the Ashab-e-Kahaf."<sup>25</sup> It is a great miracle

The dog of the people of Kahaf, for a few days
Took to the company of the virtuous and became a man that the look, glance or sight and companionship of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> affects even an animal in this way.

As Allah has said, “Or, do you think that the Fellows of the Cave and the Inscription were of Our wonderful signs” (Surah al-Kahf, 18:9)<sup>26</sup>

<sup>26</sup> What doubt do you have that the People of the Cave and the Inscription were asleep in the cave for three hundred years and they were the unique signs from amongst Our creations. None of Our signs from our creations on the land and in the skies is more unique than this. Kahaf refers to the cave named Jeeram in the mountain Bataqulus which was near the city of Afsos. This city was the capital of the kingdom of King Diqyanoos. Raqeem was the name of a town or the name of a big plain where the mountain Bataqulus was situated. Some say that the names of the People of Kahaf were engraved on a stone or on a sheet of lead and it was hung at the mouth of the cave. It is narrated in a Hadees-e-Marfu that the Ashab-e-Raqeem were three people who took refuge in the cave to escape from rain and a boulder broke in the cave, fell at the mouth of the cave and all three people were trapped inside. Each one of them beseeched Allah through the means (wasila) of a good deed he had done, to ask for relief from this predicament. That deeds were: 1) Donating the entire earnings of a labourer, 2) Fighting against the desires of the self (nafs) and 3) According good treatment to parents. When they beseeched relief through the means (waseela) of these deeds, Allah accepted their prayers, the boulder moved from the mouth of the cave and they got relief from their ordeal. There are many sayings about the Ashab-e-Kahaf, but this translation has referenced only those sayings which are very correct and well known.

When Diqyanoos capture Rome and reached the city of Afsos, he constructed a place of execution. He commanded the residents of the city to worship the idols which he worshipped. Whoever accepted his command were spared and those who did not, faced persecution and were executed at the place of execution. Six young men from this city, children of venerated men, who worshipped Allah, sat in seclusion, performed their prayers and invocated Allah to save them from the oppression of this oppressor. News about these men reached Diqyanoos. On his command, the young men were presented before him. He threatened them, but they did the forsake the path of Unity of Allah, remained steadfast on it and did not accept his commands. Diqyanoos commanded that their clothes and ornaments be taken from them. He then gave them two-three days time telling them to reflect on their situation. He told them that it would be better for them if they accept what he was commanding. Diqyanoos then turned his attention to other matters and left the city. The young men thought that that his leaving was a blessing. They discussed among themselves and decided to run away. Each of them took some money for their travel expenses from their fathers and started towards a mountain which was near the city. On the way they met a shepherd, who entered their religion and accompanied them. The shepherd's dog too followed them. Every now and then, the dog was chased away, but it did not leave their company. Allah gave the dog the power to speak and it said that, "Do not fear me because I am a friend of the friends of Allah. You sleep peacefully and I will guard you." When they reached the mountain, the shepherd said that he knew of a cave in the mountain and they could take shelter in it. Together they turned to go towards the cave. Allah describes their turning thus "...when the youths sought refuge in the cave, they said: Our Lord! grant us mercy from Thee, and provide for us a right course in our affair." (18:10 – MHS) (Tafseer-e-Qadiri Volume 1 Page 622, published by Nawal Kishore) gave him paskhurda water and he did not experience any pain. He became plump and healthy. This miracle is extraordinary for a wise judge.

Miracle 98

---

It is narrated by Qazi Budhan that the Imam<sup>AS</sup> had camped at the Masjid of Taj Khan. At that time, Qazi Budhan was the student of Sulaiman Khan, also called Islam Khan. Qazi Budhan wanted to leave the city of Mahmoodabad and go to Ahmedabad. He went to say goodbye to Islam Khan. Islam Khan said, "Meeran Syed Muhammad<sup>AS</sup> is staying in Ahmedabad at the Masjid of Taj Khan. First you meet him and convey the salaam of this lowly person. After that go wherever you wish." As per the instructions of Islam Khan, Qazi Budhan reached the entrance of the Masjid at noon and stayed there. Out of respect, he did not send word to the Imam<sup>AS</sup> about his arrival. He decided to wait till the afternoon (zuhr) prayers to meet the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. At that moment, a person wearing clothes of a Sheikh came by the command of Allah all of a sudden and said, "I wish to call the Imam<sup>AS</sup> outside and ask him about the vision of Allah with physical eyes." The Qazi replied, "Forget this thought. Nobody could speak like this. Whoever sees him (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) becomes submissive and obedient to him. If you wish to meet him, wait till zuhr prayers. He will then come out and you may kiss his feet." The Sheikh said that he wanted to leave immediately. The Qazi and the Sheikh were in this conversation, when suddenly the Imam<sup>AS</sup> came out. Both the Qazi and the Sheikh kissed his feet. Then the Imam<sup>AS</sup>, without enquiring, said, "The vision of Allah with these eyes of the head is a reality." He then explained the proof of the vision of Allah occurring in this world and in the Hereafter. The Sheikh accepted it and left.

---

Whenever Ismail Kulah Surkh enter this country (Farah), whenever he heard of the presence of the tomb of a respected person, he got the bones removed from the grave and burnt them. With the same intention, he sent five hundred horsemen to the tomb of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. When the commanders of the army had come half way towards the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> tomb, a raging storm started and darkness engulfed the army. So much so that no one from the army could return. After this, Ismail behaved with respect.

Subsequently, Ismail's son mounted a horse and came to the Imam's<sup>AS</sup> tomb. He commanded a wrestler to go forward, take the equipment and dig open the grave. When the wrestler went near the tomb, the ground beneath him cracked open and the man was buried up to his waist. This miracle of the Imam<sup>AS</sup> bore complete resemblance with the miracle of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>. A Jew went to the Prophet's<sup>SLM</sup> tomb with the intention of breaking it open. Allah protected the tomb. In the same way, it occurred here too.

Thus, know O Judge, there are many miracles of Hazrat Meeran Syed Muhammad Mahdi Mau'ood Alaihis Salaam, but by the definite and particular narratives and by the reasonable and narrated proofs, we are concluding this tract with two miracles which are clear signs.

One miracle among them is the meaning of the Book of Allah which was achieved without the teachings of any medium. Imam Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> has said, "I am given knowledge from Allah everyday without any medium (ie. without the medium of an angel). Allah commands, say 'I am the Servant of Allah, follower of Muhammad Rasoolullah'." The Imam<sup>AS</sup> further said, "Our tafseer is the purport of Allah and our teachings are as per the command of Allah." That is, it is not achieved through contemplation or reading books, but whatever is said, is on the command of Allah. O Seeker of Inquiry and O Listener of Proofs of Acceptance, from the time of the specific and common companions (of the Prophet<sup>SLM</sup>), from the next generation (taba'een) and from the generations after that (tabe taba'een) till our day, nobody has staked the claim that he has learnt the meaning of Allah's Book from Allah Himself. Except for the person with praiseworthy qualities, who is a Master of Miracles and the Exponent of Signs and Clear Proofs and has the good qualities and ethics of Prophets<sup>AS</sup>. Thus, this person of high stature, that is, Hazrat Meeran Syed Muhammad Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>, deserves this status. On the basis of this clauses, we have to say that he is a Sadiq (truthful). This is so because Hazrat Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup> shared one existence (ek wajood) with Hazrat Muhammad<sup>SLM</sup>, the Seal of the Prophets, for all obvious reasons (min-kul-lil-wajud). On this subject, the Verses of the Book of Allah like 'Summa Inna Alaina Bayana' (and then, behold, it will be for Us to make its meaning clear.) (Surah al-Qiyamah, 75:19) and the Hadees of Rasool<sup>SLM</sup> like 'Innahu Yaqfu Asri...' (He will follow my footsteps...) and the writings of the respected books like kashful Haqaiq are well known to corroborate this miracle and have been summarised for fear of lengthiness.

---

The second part of this hundredth miracle as proof of the Mahdiat of Imam<sup>AS</sup> is the Battle of Badr of Sainthood, Very clear sign, Luminous Proof, Greater Miracle (Badr-e-Vilayet, Ayat-e-Azhar, Hujjat-e-Anwar, Mu'jizae Buzurgtar), shining like the sun and the moon. The Imam<sup>AS</sup> had handed this to the Lord of the Lords, Most Glorious of Lords, Illuminating Full Moon, Immense Lamp, Powerful Lord (Syedus Saadaat, Amjadus Saadaat, Badrul Muneer, Sirajul Kabeer, Ulul Ameer) Miyan Syed Khundmir<sup>RZ</sup> and said every now and then, "If all the creations of the west and the east join together and attack you, then on the first day they will run from you" and he prophesied the martyrdom of the Lord of the Martyrs (Syedus Shohda<sup>RZ</sup>) on the second day. Further he said, "Brother Syed Khundmir, wherever the burden of Vilayet-e-Mustafa<sup>SLM</sup> is placed on anyone, there the head, the body and the skin are separated. If this servant is Mahdi Mau'ood, then this attribute will manifest on you." Just as this Sadiqul Wa'ad (true to one's promise) (Imam<sup>AS</sup>) had prophesized, it took place and the proof of Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> was complete with this miracle. From this miracle have come forth many other miracles in the proof of Mahdiat of Hazrat Mahdi Mau'ood<sup>AS</sup>, but are not written to cut short the text.

Thus we know, O Judge, this battle of vilayet is known as the Battle of Badr. This battle, like the Battle of Badr of Muhammad Mustafa<sup>SLM</sup> is the sum of all miracles and proofs of the Imam<sup>AS</sup>. Miyan Abdur Rashid<sup>RZ</sup> has written that the proof of the Mahdi<sup>AS</sup> was completed with the Badr-e-Vilayet.

This book of miracles has been published earlier too by this idaara (Darul Isha'at Tafseer-ul-Quran wo Kutub Salaf Saaliheen Jamiat-e-Mahdavia). Now it is being printed the second time. Since the name of the author of this book was not mentioned, the transcribers attributed this book to Hazrat Bandagi Miyan Syed Qasim Mujtahid-e-Giroh<sup>RH</sup>. However, its actual author is Hazrat Bandagi Miyan Shah Burhanuddin<sup>RH</sup>, the author of Shawahid-ul-Vilayet. As the author himself mentions this book along with its full name in chapter 32 of Shawahid-ul-Vilayet (refer Shawahid-ul-Vilayet page 401). Among the list of books written by Hazrat Mujtahid-e-Giroh<sup>RH</sup>, which is well known, there is no mention of this book.
